

Thinking about the needs of a better environment for customers in a restaurant draws attention to some aspects like lighting, better ventilation, spaces of entertainment. In this section, the patio space, which is adjacent to the entry includes larger windows which maximize the penetration of the light and also helps in ventilation. The space on the main and the second floor act as a spacious environment due to the large windows.

3D WALL SECTION

Eknoor Kaur Brar
 Architectural Studio 6
 MP2 Final Design